Visitors to our websites

When someone visits www.theprsb.org we use a third-party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We collect this information, so we can find out how many people visit our website and which pages are visited most frequently. The aim is to improve the experience for our users. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

Use of cookies by the PRSB

We currently use one cookie for our Newsletter pop-up. This cookie simply informs us whether you have accepted or rejected the offer to receive our monthly newsletter so that you will not see the pop-up again during future visits to our website.

Searching on our website

Search queries and results are logged anonymously to help us improve our website and search functionality. No user-specific data is collected by either PRSB or any third party. We do not retain contact details anywhere on our website. The information we receive through our website enquiry forms is sent straight to our secure PRSB mailboxes and is not stored online for any future use.

People who submit enquiries via our website

Information and support enquiries are routed to the respective PRSB Outlook mail boxes. The mail boxes are privileged, and password protected to prevent unauthorised disclosure.

The details of your enquiry will not be stored on our website. Personal data and the written content of information enquiries are deleted after eight weeks, following closure of the enquiry.

We do log our Support enquiries and after 12 weeks we delete the personal information and keep only the written enquiry along with the date it was sent, our response and response date, and the date the enquiry was closed. The reason we keep the text to an enquiry and the dates around it is to monitor our service level agreements and to be accountable. The retention of support enquiry text also assists in responding to duplicate enquiries efficiently.

People who supply their details on our Get Involved web form

Your form will be routed to our support inbox which is privileged, and password protected. Your form will not remain on our website. Your details will be stored for the sole purpose of providing you with the involvement that you have requested.

You can read Vuelio's policy on their website:

<http://www.vuelio.com/uk/>

People who email us

Our email traffic between client and mailbox is encrypted and protected by Transport Layer Security (TLS). If your email service does not support TLS, you should be aware that any emails we send or receive may not be protected in transit. We will also monitor any emails sent to us, including file attachments, for viruses or malicious software. Please be aware that you have a responsibility to ensure that any email you send is within the bounds of the law.

E-newsletter

We use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver our monthly e-newsletters. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies including clear gifs to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. You can read MailChimp's privacy policy on their website:

<https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/>

Unsubscribing from our e-newsletter presents an additional tick box to indicate to us that you request complete removal of your details from our database.

Surveys and Workshops

The PRSB specifically obtains your consent for surveys and workshops under contract through our partnership organisations. To efficiently assist our organisation of the workshop or survey communications, your professional contact details will be entered in to our central Client Relationship Management software (CRM).

You will be given the opportunity at the workshop or during the survey to specify whether your details should be subsequently removed from our CRM, which will mean that you will not receive future associated communication from us.

Should you choose to opt-in to your details to being kept by us on our CRM and used for further legitimate interest communications but later decide that you would like your details to be removed, you will be provided with the opportunity to opt-out via a link provided at the end of each piece of correspondence, or at any other time by using the Contact Us information provided at the end of this document.

People who contact us via social media

Our in-house communications team manage our social media transactions. We do not use a third-party provider. As is standard, all our accounts are password protected and carefully monitored.

If you send us a private or direct message via social media the message will be stored by us for three months before being deleted. It will not be shared with any other organisations.

- If we make a final offer, we will also ask you for the following:

- Emergency contact details – so we know who to contact in case you have an emergency at work.
- Pension scheme membership – so we can continue your contributions. If you do not already have a work place pension we will enrol you.

Use of data processors

Data processors are third parties, for example, an employment agency, who provide elements of our recruitment service for us. We have contracts in place with our data processors. This means that they cannot do anything with your personal information unless we have instructed them to do it. They will not share your personal information with any organisation apart from us. They will hold it securely and retain it for the period we instruct.
