

111 Referral to ED

System
generated DataSystem
prompted DataManually
entered Data

NHS 111 Referral – Note: if this patient is not registered at your GP Practice, please return the document to XXX@nhs.net, to enable us to redirect the document]

Surname: Sykes	First Name: Helen	NHS No: 111 111 2222	Local /Journey ID: XXXXXXXX
Home Address: 15 Cosy Avenue Newtown NT1 1AB	DOB: 1/2/1980 AGE: 42 Sex: F Gender: Female	Contact details: Tel: 01234 567891 Mobile: 07755 555 555 email: helen.sykes@mvemal.com	Preferred method of contact: Mobile
Consent to share information: YES	Ethnicity Mixed – White Asian	Religion Agnostic	Marital Status: Married
Registered GP: Dr Mark Brown	Registered GP Practice: Newtown GP Surgery Newtown NT1 2XZ GP Practice ID: H2031	Repeat caller: No	Date of Call: 28/3/2022
Caller details: Miss Jayne Sykes	Relationship Daughter	Contact details: 07755 555 666	Preferred contact method: Mobile

Referrer Details:
Name: Dr M Smith	Role: 111 Clinician	Organisation: 111 Newtown Ambulance Service	Contact details: 01234 232456
Referral Method: Secure message (FHIR message)	Reason for Referral: Further Investigation	Urgency of Referral: Attend Emergency Treatment Centre within 1 hour (Dx02)
Referral To:
Service: Newtown Hospital Emergency Department	Organisation: NHS Newtown Hospital	Contact details: 03456 987654

Clinical Summary
Helen called us today complaining of sudden onset severe throbbing headache to the back of her head. She has not been sick but had mild nausea. Recommend to see ED doctor within 1 hour for further tests. Helen's daughter Jayne will drive her to ED straight away.
Plan and requested actions
Request for ED to carry out tests to rule out Subarachnoid Haemorrhage
Presenting Complaints or Issues – Textual wording for the Pathways Symptom Group (SG) code or Symptom Discriminator (SD) code
Headache finding (SNOMED 2564002) Nausea
Chief Complaint - Textual wording for the Pathways Symptom Group (SG) code or Symptom Discriminator (SD) code
Sudden onset severe headache (Pathway SG & SD Code England)
Chief Clinical Concern – suspected diagnosis
Free Text	Suspected Subarachnoid Haemorrhage	Coded Data	SNOMED CT Health issues simple reference set Not Yet available via Pathways
Confirmed Diagnosis
Free Text	N/A	Coded Data	SNOMED CT Health issues simple reference set Not Yet available via Pathways
Risks – New
N/A Safeguarding
N/A
Medication – (Over the counter or bought online)
OTC Paracetamol
Self-reported Allergies & Adverse reactions
N/A
Individual Requirements (Reasonable Adjustments)
N/A
Person and carer concerns expectations and wishes
Patient concerned re sudden onset severe headache , would like tests to check nothing serious. Family History of Subarachnoid Haemorrhage (father)			